Old Business:

Dobie is still waiting to hear from Home Team Sporting goods on the volleyball uniforms. Already have Team Sports samples. He did state that even due to the delay in receiving sample uniforms, they team should have ample time to get their order in prior to the start of the season. Sandi made a motion to approve up to $2500.00 towards to purchase of the uniforms. Stacy seconded. All in favor.

A motion was made by Jane and seconded by Stacy to purchase two trophy cases at $1,000.00 each. All were in favor.

Dobie looked into the cost of a new awning for the concession stand which would be 18' long. Materials only would be charged at a cost of $600.00. Stacy motion the materials for $600.00, Kathy seconded. All in favor.

Dobie will check into the flag for the football field and placement of a flag pole.

New Business:

Cheerleading coached, Gail Brznowski, and Char Lortie brough in a proposal for new cheerleading uniforms. Request was to support 14 girl uniforms and 1 male. Stacy made a motion to give $2,500.00 toward the uniform, Sandi seconded. All in favor.

Patty motioned for a summer recreation donation of $300.00, Kathy seconded. All in favor.

U.P. Golf tournament will take place in Ironwood for the girls and Hurley for the boys. Total cost is between $500 and $600.00. Sandi made a motion to support the costs up to $600.00. Patty seconded. All were in favor.

Sports Awards program will be held on Thursday, May 26. Jane, Kathy and Stacy will be there to serve the bars. Sports Boosters will pay for the food and drink as in the past.

There has not been any further discussion from the school district on the $25,000 fund raising for the 2011-12 school year.

An idea for fund raising is to sell "entertainment packages" that involve the NFL. This would take the place of the golf cart raffle. Kathy made a motion for Jane to order 500 packages and Sandi seconded. All in favor.

The golf tournament preparation is underway. Dobie is looking for raffle prizes. Cow bingo on hold yet.

Football concession food and pricing will remain the same.

Meeting adjourned at 5:20.
